The daily values of the two alpha detectors in EXP #1 during 5 years (exactly full annual cycles). The regression line calculated from the averages of both sensors shows a significant long term rise!

